

Barnes and Noble Bookfair

Dear Parents,

On Sunday, March 18th, 2012, St. Joseph will be hosting a book fair at the Barnes and Noble Vancouver location. This year, our children are our SPECIAL EVENT! More classes than ever are practicing to participate in this event where EVERY dime earned goes to support library services in the way of books, e-readers, and author assemblies. Please mark your calendar and let me know if your family can support this event.

SPECIFICS

The Barnes and Noble Book Fair is a wonderful way to earn money for our library in a very easy way! Last year, the library earned $600.00 to spend on books and supplies which helped me buy two Nook Simple Touch eReaders to support our fourth grade classrooms. This year I hope to add two more eReaders in third grade class and reach a goal of $1000 profit for our school.

To help reach our goal, I have asked our Kindergarten, 1st grade, 4th grade, 5th grade, and 6th grade students to entertain the shoppers from 1:30pm-3:30pm.

Here is the TENTATIVE schedule:

1:45pm- Kindergarten- recite Nursery Rhymes from Mother Goose with a green theme.

2:15pm- 1st grade- TBA

2:30pm- 4th grade- Dewey Decimal Reader's Theatre

Book reviews throughout the afternoon by 5th grade with all reviews on display

3:00 6th grade band- 2 performances

Storytelling by surprise teachers in the reading nook

Because many of these performances require me to assign specific roles, I need to know which students will be able to attend. We have been talking about this in class for the last week and will begin practicing next week. Please fill out the attached form right away and let me know if your family will be available to support this event.

Thank you!

Mrs. Hunt

Cut here and return by Tuesday, Feb 7th, 2012

Yes! _____ in _____ grade will be performing at the Barnes and Noble Bookfair on Sunday, March 18th, 2012.

Parent Signature