

Minutes from 12/08/11

PTO Meeting

Holiday Bazaar made over $1,000.00 at bake sale. More people were asked to bake for Sunday. Total made $2300.00!! 20 tables are already pre-booked for next year.

At January meeting Jill Watson would like to discuss future goals and benefits of PTO.

Patty Vick spoke about Catholic schools week-which is end of January first week of Feb. Catholic schools week will consist of Open house, Grandparents day, Dad's spaghetti dinner, Evening of entertainment. Spaghetti dinner (Contact Patrick O'Day) will be Saturday night. Sunday will be Open House 11-2. Volunteers are needed; please contact Patty Vick.

Mrs. Harrison is bringing back a program called Middle Matters for parents of students starting middle school. It will discuss what is involved with middle school.

Ronan Eggleston- talked about Jr. Achievement for 2012. This year there will be 16 classes instead of 12. Most classes are sponsored, but volunteers are needed. There is a training session that goes through the kit and managing a classroom, most have 5-7 sessions averaging about 30-45 min. each plus preparation. Classes will be held in the springtime, day and time will be assigned by teacher.

Restaurant night will be Patrick's Hawaiian in January. Scrip will have cards available.

Wreath Poinsettia sale- Lost a few orders looking for a better way to contain $ and orders. A lot of families did not fill out the survey. Trying to do one pickup day for next year.

Casino night-about 130 people attended, 300 attended last year.

Auction- Procurement item $75.00 due January 15 or $100 by Feb. 15, after that date cash only! Presale Auction tickets Jan 1. $49.00 each after price goes to $60.00 each. Judy sending out a packet containing auction info.

Next Meetings: Wednesday, January 11th (PM) and Thursday, January 12th (AM)