

Vendor Definitions

Arts & Crafts

These booths are reserved for artists who design and produce their own work. All items for sale must be the original creation of the artist. No copies, except for prints of original art work. Items made from kits, imported items, factory-made items, unfinished work, arts & crafts supplies, manufactured or kit jewelry are not allowed. Please click on “Merchants”. Unacceptable to the show are items that have projectiles (i.e.: toy weapons, swords, knives & guns).

Merchants

Merchant booths include commercially produced tangible merchandise. Items such as brass & glass figurines, imported items, clothes, purses, arts & crafts supplies, manufactured or kit jewelry are all for sale at the merchant booth. Merchant booths can also include companies that are looking to add membership or sell services, for example Massage Therapists, Home Building/Improvement Companies, Time Share/Vacation Package Companies, Chiropractic Offices, Food Industries and Banking Institutions. Please note: Unacceptable to the show are items that have projectiles (i.e.: toy weapons, swords, knives & guns).*

Community Lane

These booths are reserved for non-profits, special interest, and government organizations and agencies who want to promote their charity or share information with the general public regarding their organization’s mission or cause. Some examples include: The Humane Society for Southwest Washington, The Columbia River Crossing Project, etc.
