

MAC ATTACK CHALLENGE

Hosted by St. Joseph Leadership Squad

The Mac Attack Challenge is a two-week competition to see who can bring in the most non-perishable macaroni and cheese for the Portland Police Sunshine Division. The Sunshine Division is a local non-profit food bank that provides emergency food and clothing to metro area families, including families in southwest Washington.

Who:

Portland Police Sunshine Division

What:

Mac and Cheese Competition

When:

Monday, May 15 through Friday, May 26

Competing against: Valley Catholic, St. John Fisher, St. Cecilia, Cathedral, and St. John the Baptist

SO HURRY AND BRING MAC AND CHEESE SO WE CAN HELP THE HUNGRY IN OUR COMMUNITY AND WE DON'T LOSE TO THESE OTHER SCHOOLS!!!